Singing is as much an act of worship as is prayer.

Ellen G. White

We should watch and work and pray as though this were the last day that would be granted us.

[Last Day Events, 77.1]

The government under which Jesus lived was corrupt and oppressive; on every hand were crying abuses,—extortion, intolerance, and grinding cruelty. Yet the Saviour attempted no civil reforms. He attacked no national abuses, nor condemned the national enemies. He did not interfere with the authority or administration of those in power. He who was our example kept aloof from earthly governments. Not because He was indifferent to the woes of men, but because the remedy did not lie in merely human and external measures. To be efficient, the cure must reach men individually, and must regenerate the heart.

- Ellen White

Thus their petitions ascended with the cloud of incense, while faith laid hold upon the merits of the promised Saviour prefigured by the atoning sacrifice. Through divine agency, we have the spirit of intercession, whereby we may plead with God, as a man pleadeth with his friend. And when in later times the Jews were scattered as captives in distant lands, they still at the appointed hour turned their faces toward Jerusalem and offered up their petitions to the God of Israel. This kind of PRAYER causes us to have an influence over those with whom we associate. Such teaching is opposed to the testimony of the Scriptures. White, but appears to originate from a devotional reading found in The Daily Word, June 18, 1952. And by faith we may see heaven opened, and the glorified Son of God, the High Priest of our salvation, pleading for sinners. Following the example of Christ, he should intercede with God for the people of his care till he sees that his prayers are answered. . They united in silent prayer, with their faces toward the holy place. It wells up from perfect trust and assurance, and by its fervor makes manifest to the world, to angels, and to men, that you do believe in God, and have made Christ your personal Saviour. In this custom Christians have an example for morning and evening prayer. 271 What a PRAYER was that which came forth from the lips of Daniel! What humbling of soul it reveals! The warmth of heavenly fire was recognized in the words that were going upward to God. Review and Herald, Oct. It is our privilege and duty to bring the efficacy of the name of Christ into our petitions, and use the very arguments that Christ has used in our behalf. 11, p. In order that we may have something to impart, we must daily receive light and blessing. The sick were healed, and other miracles were wrought. He can move upon the hearts of statesmen; the wrath of the turbulent and disaffected, the haters of God, His truth, and His people can be turned aside, even as the rivers of water are turned, if He orders it thus. 30, 1900 PRAYER to the Great Physician for the healing of the soul brings the blessing of God. The hours appointed for the morning and the evening sacrifice were regarded as sacred, and they came to be observed as the set time for worship throughout the Jewish nation. This kind of PRAYER enables the suppliant to understand what it means to lay hold of the strength of God, and to make peace with him. 4, p.267 The minister is not to rule imperiously over the flock entrusted to his care, but to be their ensample, and to show them the way to heaven. The intercession of Samuel had given a feeling of security; for "the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." James 5:16. Review and Herald, Dec. The PRAYER of the contrite heart unlocks the treasure house of supplies, and lays hold of omnipotent power. Christ is constantly interceding for sinners. He who marshals the stars in order in the heavens, whose word controls the waves of the great deep, the same infinite Creator will work in behalf of His people if they call upon Him in faith. But you must say to Satan, "It is written" that "men ought always to pray, and not to faint." . It is PRAYER to the Great Physician to heal the soul that will bring the blessing of God. We need now to be imbued with the spirit of Christ, and we should not rest until we receive it. There is no chapter in our experience too dark for Him to read; there is no perplexity too difficult for Him to unravel. Jesus has opened the door of heaven for us, and we may make intercession at the throne of grace, lifting up holy hands without wrath or doubting, presenting before God those for whom we are laboring. While God condemns a mere round of ceremonies, without the spirit of worship, He looks with great pleasure upon those who love Him, bowing morning and evening to seek pardon for sins committed. . God's people should now make mighty intercession to him for help. The natural co-operates with the supernatural. Thus they represent God as bound by his own laws; as if the operation of divine laws could exclude divine freedom. 353 As the priests morning and evening entered the holy place at the time of incense, the daily sacrifice was ready to be offered upon the altar in the court without. It will not be prayer without point and purpose, but it will be the intercession of a heart burdened for poor sinners out of Christ. It is a part of God's plan to grant us, in answer to the PRAYER of faith, that which he would not bestow, did we not thus ask. He will restrain the forces of darkness until the warning is given to the world and all who will heed it are prepared for the conflict. A spirit of intercession was seen, even as was manifested before the great Day of Pentecost. Pamphlet. An Important Testimony to Our Brethren and Sisters in New York, 1887 A truly Christian life will cost us thoughtfulness, searching of the Scriptures, and most earnest, persevering prayer. This faith is the key that opens the divine treasury, is the hand by which we appropriate to our use the richest gifts of God. When the message of truth was first proclaimed, how much we prayed. Christ's Object Lessons, p.172 The children of God are not left alone and defenseless. 177 When men have to swim against the stream, there is a weight of waves driving them back. 100: "Keep your wants, your joys, your sorrows, your cares, and your fears before God. Pray without ceasing Advent Review and Sabbath Herald, Feb. Hearts were convicted by the power of the Holy Spirit, and a spirit of genuine conversion was manifest. Patriarchs and Prophets, p. It is the privilege of every believer, first to talk with God, and then, as God's mouthpiece, to talk with others. Heaven responded to that PRAYER by sending its messenger to Daniel. The universe, say they, is governed by fixed laws, and God himself does nothing contrary to these laws. This was a time of intense interest to the worshipers who assembled at the tabernacle. The statement, as usually circulated, carries the incorrect reference of Review and Herald, October 7, 1865. Testimonies, v.5, p.161 We must be much in prayer if we would make progress in the divine life. Patriarchs and Prophets, p.663 [The nation of Israel] had lost [Samuel] to whom the people had been accustomed to go with their great troubles--lost one who had constantly interceded with God in behalf of the best interests of its people. By PRAYER the sick have been encouraged to believe that God will look with compassion upon them. PRAYER unites us one to another and to God. Among the ministers of Christ there is too little prayer, and too much self-exaltation. The prayer of David should be the prayer of pastors and laymen: "It is time for Thee, Lord, to work: for they have made void Thy law." Let the servants of the Lord weep between the porch and the altar, crying: "Spare Thy people, O Lord, and give not Thine heritage to reproach." God has always wrought for His people in their greatest extremity, when there seemed the least hope that ruin could be averted. Prayer moves the arm of Omnipotence. Signs of the Times, Oct 3, 1892 Talk courage to the church; lift them up to God in prayer. How often was the voice of intercession heard in the chamber, in the barn, in the orchard, or the grove. That I May Know Him, p. With slight variation, the quotation also appeared anonymously in the January 29, 1953, and October 7, 1965, issues of the Review and Herald. They should make mighty intercession with God for help now. Review and Herald, Mar. 24, 1903 Ministers should be instant in prayer. Signs of the Times, Sept 11, 1893 The church may be composed of those who are poor and uneducated; but if they have learned of Christ the science of prayer, the church will have power to move the arm of Omnipotence. Before entering into the presence of God through the ministrations of the priest, they were to engage in earnest searching of heart and confession of sin. The enemy holds many of you from prayer, by telling you that you do not feel your prayers, and that you would better wait until you realize more of the spirit of intercession, lest your prayers should be a mockery. Then it is that Christ clothes the contrite suppliant with his own priestly vestments, and the Lord Jehovah accepts the argument that is presented in the name of his Son, and places the resources of his merit at your command. PRAYER brings Jesus to our side, and gives new strength and fresh grace to the fainting, perplexed soul. Those who co-operate with him must do a work which corresponds to that which he is doing in heaven. 348 Again, worldly wisdom teaches that PRAYER is not essential. Souls are more hardened. Frequently we spent hours in earnest prayer, two or three together claiming the promise, "There is too little weeping between the porch and the altar, crying, "Spare thy people, O Lord, and give not thy heritage to reproach." Too little is said about the love and compassion of Jesus. Hundreds and thousands were seen visiting families and opening before them the word of God. It is PRAYER that unites hearts. Tell them that when they feel that they have sinned, and cannot pray, it is then the time to pray. Let a hand then be held out, as was the Elder Brother's hand to a sinking Peter. Our High Calling, p. Testimonies, v.5, p.454 A great work is to be done, and this work has been entrusted to those who know the truth. Men of science claim that there can be no real answer to PRAYER; that this would be a violation of law, a miracle, and that miracles have no existence. At Issue Index Prayer Index 98 Unceasing PRAYER is the unbroken union of the soul with God, so that life from God flows into our life; and from our life, purity and holiness flow back to God. PRAYER turns aside the attacks of Satan. 8, 1910 There must be no pretense in the lives of those who have so sacred and solemn a message as we have been given to bear. Christ the Medium of Blessing The Signs of the Times, June 18, 1896 The summing up of the benefit of PRAYER is that devotion that leads to faith in God's promises. No calamity can befall the least of His children, no anxiety harass the soul, no joy cheer, no sincere prayer escape the lips, of which our heavenly Father is unobservant, or in which He takes no immediate interest." At Issue Index Prayer Index Here are some 'favorite' quotations sent in by some of our SDAnet contributors during a discussion on the subject of prayer. For a more complete look at what she says on this topic, go to the EGV Estate where all of her published writings are available for online reading and searching by topic or phrase. Steps to Christ, ch. That God who heard Daniel's PRAYER will hear ours when we come to Him in contrition. The PRAYER of faith is not listless, dry, and uninteresting. Many were praising God. A ray of light penetrates to the hopeless soul, and becomes a savor of life unto life. PRAYER unites us with one another and with God. Let the one who is supposed to have moved wrongly be given no occasion by his brother to become discouraged, but let him feel the strong clasp of a sympathizing hand; let him hear the whisper, "Let us pray." The Holy Spirit will give a rich experience to both. Now is the time to lay hold of the arm of our strength. The light and power of the Holy Spirit will be ours.
