Adjective or Adverb?

Name _____

All -ly words are not created equal! Some people see an -ly ending on a word and think that it's an adverb. That's because many adverbs do end in -ly. But be careful! An -ly ending can also be found on some adjectives. How do you tell the difference?
 An adverb often describes a verb, while an adjective often describes a noun.

Read each sentence. Circle the -ly word. Decide whether it is an adverb or an adjective. Write the appropriate term on the line following the sentence.

Example: No one wanted to live by the treble Andell.      adjective
