Apache/2.4.41 (Ubuntu) Server at m.central.edu Port 443 This is a quiz on the early peoples of the Americas: the Eastern Woodlands, Great Plains, Southwest (Pueblo), and Northwest/Arctic Native Americans of North America; and the Aztecs and Incas of Meso & South America. Includes multiple choice, Aztec/Indian selection, fill-in-chart and short answer sections. Also has a complete answer key for the teacher. If using the Harcourt Social Studies textbook on World History, use with Chapter 12. Check out other products in my store, including: Parent Teac HMH Into Social Studies: Climate Video Response by This digital video response aligns with Into Social Studies Grade 4 Magazine 3: Climate. Students will need to watch the two videos (Hurricane Katrina and California Drought) included in the online component of HMH Into Social Studies. This resource allows students to summarize their learning after watching both videos. Students will type two facts per video, as well as answer two reflective questions about extreme weather conditions. Three Worlds Meethy Power Points correspond with HMH American History textbook (2018). This sample is for Module 1. Starting with Module 2 every lesson has it's own Power Point. These go along with the textbook, simplify the main points and provide visuals and short videos to reinforce ideas. Buy one lesson at a time, or bundle them into an entire Module, or an entire semester. Types: Buddhism Test by Test on Buddhism for middle schoolers. Originally designed to accompany HMH's "Eastern Hemisphere" section on Buddhism, this assessment has a handful of added items. I use this as a pre-test or post-test after a handful of lessons. We have had so much fun talking about Right Actions and Right Speech during this Buddhism lesson!
