Literature in English Specimen Paper Class IX 2020 onwards

Comments of Examiners

(a) While a number of candidates attempted this question well, some common anomalies observed in this question were:
Format: No address was given - candidates wrote either school name or Examination hall.
Month (February) was spelled incorrectly.
Instead of the examination date other dates were given.
Incorrect salutation - not used the word Sir/Madam.
Incorrect informal subscription.
The subscription 'yours' was written as "your's" with an apostrophe.
Content: role of the candidate, kind of club was not specified.
Expression: Formal language as required in formal letter was not used. Very casual language and faulty sentence construction was predominant.

(b) Common errors made by candidates in this part were:
Format: Many candidates used formal subscription, various combinations of friend and dear in the salutation/subscription.
Content: 'Concern' by the sender was not specified.
Candidates failed to mention the help they would offer to improve the performance of their friend. The sender seemed to understand that advice offered was all that was important.
Expression: Very casual informal language was used. Correct English usage was missing in many letters.
