Here's what's next

- 1 Add new licenses for your team and invite new members. Don't forget to assign a license to yourself if you'd like to use Adobe apps as well!
- 2 Visit the Admin Tools section to add a secondary admin, configure and deploy software, learn more about the products and services you have.
- 3 Easily manage your Adobe licenses by clicking on the Get Started button below.

Get Started

A screenshot of the Adobe Creative Cloud desktop application interface. On the left, there's a large blue sidebar with a red arrow pointing upwards. The main area has a light gray background. At the top, it says 'FIND NEW APPS' and 'All Apps'. Below that is a list of applications with their icons: Acrobat XI Pro (purple square with 'Ac'), After Effects CC (dark purple square with 'Ae'), Audition CC (teal square with 'AU'), Bridge CC (gold square with 'Br'), Dreamweaver CC (green square with 'DW'), and Edge Animate CC (dark blue square with 'An'). Each item has a 'More Information' link and either a 'Try' or 'Install' button to its right.
