Bratislava official tourist information

Right after boarding the vehicle, passengers must stamp their ticket in the nearest stamping machine. Residents remember the city's grand history and traditions, celebrate the typical cuisine and bring a sparkle to everyday life. Tickets: -night ticket valid for 90 min, multiple ride -prepaid tickets (PCL) 30-, 90- and 365-day ticket (personal chip card is needed) -touristic ticket valid for 24, 48, 72 and 168 hours - unlimited travel Passengers are required to buy a ticket in a yellow ticket machine at a bus stop, at a newspaper kiosk or at a DPB shop before getting on board. From Vienna International Airport Schwechat: daily shuttle bus Blaguss or Slovak Lines, leaving every 30 minutes from 6:20am until 12:45am. The dominant triangle – Bratislava Castle, the UFO tower, and St Martin's Cathedral – offers a combination of a spectacular panoramic views over the town, wonderful culinary experiences, together with reminders of the city's rich coronation history. If you are looking for a city break full of culture, exceptional cuisine, exclusive experiences and unique atmosphere, Bratislava is the place to be. Lost and found In case of loss of personal belongings, the passenger must contact Dopravný podnik Bratislava, at: +421 2 5950 5950. Ticket inspection A passenger who cannot provide a valid ticket to the inspector will have to pay a fine in accordance with the currently valid public transport code. Tickets: -one-way ticket valid for 15 min -multiple-ride ticket valid for 60 min -weekend multiple-ride ticket valid for 90min -touristic ticket valid for 24, 48, 72 and 168 hours - unlimited travel -children under 6 years of age travel for free Night operation: on selected bus routes from 11.30pm until 3.30am. A ticket that has not been stamped is not valid. Bratislava was ranked as the third greenest city in the world. The city forests and parks are just a hop away from the centre itself. When getting one on the street, the price might be double or more. Slovenská pošta Bratislava Country code: +421 Area code: 2 A modern city on the Danube, in which centuries-old history combines with an exciting present. The price per kilometre varies from 0,50 Euro-cents and up. If you need to travel further afield within the city, the best way to do so is by public transport. It is not just Bratislava's affordability and proximity to other capitals that attracts visitors to Slovakia's capital. Come recharge your energy from the very heart of Europe. Experience the city to the fullest with Bratislava CARD City & Region. Bratislava is not just a destination for culture and history. Dozens of museums and galleries can be easily joined with visits to traditional restaurants, many of whose recipes hark back to the days of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy. www.blaguss.sk Tel.: +421 2 43 63 72 57 www.slovaklines.sk Tel.: +421 2 55 42 27 34 Most sights and places of interest to tourists can be found in the city centre, or within walking distance of the pedestrianised old town. Trace the steps of eleven Austro-Hungarian emperors and seven royal wives who were crowned here in Bratislava. By taxi it will take around 15 minutes, you will find the taxi stand in front of the Arrival terminal. A great advantage of the historical centre is its compactness. We highly recommend to agree on the price before getting in the car. Town squares are linked by a multitude of romantic alleys hiding cosy cafes, wine bars or local taverns. There is a regular bus service from both airports to Bratislava city centre: From Bratislava Airport, outside the arrivals/departure terminal operated by the Municipal public transport – bus Nr. 61, transfer at Hlavná stanica (Main railway station), change to Bus Nr. X13 - get off at Nam. Along the bank of the Danube lies the oldest public park in central Europe, Sad Janka Kráľová. Year-round you can witness cultural and social events. Airport Bratislava offers also several car rental services, which you can find in the public area of the Arrivals terminal: Avis, Sixt, Eurocar, Alamo, Hertz, Enterprise, Budget and Europcar. Daily operation: buses, trams and trolleybuses run from 5am until 11.30pm. Airport Bratislava is located approximately 9 km from the city center and about a 50 minutes drive from the International Vienna Airport Schwechat. SNP - to get to the city centre. The journey would take approximately 30 minutes. Short distance trips are charged at minimum 4 EUR. If you are interested in contemporary culture, be sure not to miss the Danubiana Museum of modern Art, uniquely seated directly on the Danube. Bratislava has a comprehensive network of public transport lines running at regular intervals according to defined timetables. www.dpb.sk or www.imhd.sk Unlike cities in other countries, in Slovakia, it is cheaper to order a taxi by phone than to hail one on the street. Departure times and a list of destinations, with the journey time to each, are posted for each service at every stop it serves. Get to know the real local atmosphere.
