Synonyms [edit] further reading [edit] gay village on wikipedia, wikipedia The International LGBTQ + Travel Association (abbreviated Iglta and previously called The International Gay and Lesbian Travel Association) is an association of tourist activities that welcome the LGBTQ + community . Starting from 2016, the Association has had companies members in around 80 countries. IGLTA history is a network of tourist companies in about 80 countries accommodate the LGBTQ + community and includes accommodations, transport, destinations, service providers, travel agents, tour operators, events and e average. The organization also provides travel resources and information to companies consumers and promotes equality and security within the LGBTQ + tourism industry. Founded in 1983 by a group of 25 travel agents and hotel owners, Iglta has grown significantly. The association has historically had several names: [1] [2] [3] From 1983 to 1997, the organization was known as Igta (International Gay Travel Association). From 1997 to 2019, the organization was known as the International Association of Gay Travel and Lesbian. In March 2019, the name has been changed to the International LGBTQ + travel association. Iglta was "the first gay organization to receive the status of members affiliated in the World Tourism Organization (Unice) in November 2010". [4] In November 2015 the Iglta became an organizational partner with the Pacific Asia Travel Association (Pata) [5] [6] In 2016, the Iglta received the WinQ Magazine Travel Award in London. [7] [8] Governance The Iglta has two tables: the Board of Directors of the Iglta Association, [9] which is the Body Body for the Association and supervises the strategy and management of the organization; And the Board of Directors of the Iglta Foundation, [10] which manages the finances of the Foundation and establishes official policies that govern the Foundation. [11] The current board of directors of the Iglta Association in September 2021 is a comfortable executive: Jon MuÄ ± oz, chair; Don Skeroch, Vice-President; Felipe Cardenas, Treasurer; Shihou Keuchik, secretary; Juan P. Julia Blanch, immediate passed chair. The members of the board of directors include: Albert Herrera; Uwertong; Richard Kreiger; Steven Larkin; Sanddi Robinson; Aborya Gandhi; Pamie Oriel and Maria Tuttoquore. John Tanzella, Iglta CEO acts as a member of the Administration of Ex officio. LGBT activist Juan P. Julia Blanch was the outgoing president for the Iglta Board of Directors. [12] [13] International symposium and World Convention The International Gay and The Travel Association (IGLTA) holds an annual world convention and four symposiums in different tourist destinations around the world. The international symposium attracts more than 500 participants, including CVB officials of destination, travel agents, airline employees and tourism professionals. The IGLTA Foundation also sponsors scholarships for students participating in international symposia every year. Previous grants were awarded to students from Brazil, Colombia, China, Cura195; 167ao, from Jamaica, Japan, Liberia, Norway, Peru, South Africa, Suriname, Spain and the United States. [14] The 36th annual convention of the world was held in New York at the end of April 2019, one month before the WorldPride feast held in the city all June to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Stonewall revolts. [15] The 37th World Convention will be held in Milan in 2020-May. IGLTA Foundation The mission statement of the IGLTA Foundation (2019): the IGLTA Foundation supports the mission of IGLTA and its members through the development of education, research and leadership that benefits the global tourism industry LGBTQ+. Founded in 2012 [16] with the support of the founding partner of the IGLTA Delta Air Lines Foundation, the IGLTA Foundation is the 501(c)(3) organisation and the subsidiary of the International LGBTQ+ Travel Association. The IGLTA Foundation supports initiatives for industrial organisations, leaders and communities to promote LGBTQ+ travel around the world. A board of directors governs the IGLTA Foundation, supervising the strategy and management of the organisation. The Board of Directors of the IGLTA Foundation operates according to a standard of The activities of the IGLTA Foundation focus on "leadership", research and education. The IGLTA Foundation encourages governments and tourism leaders to make LGBTQ+ travellers feel safe and welcome. The Foundation provides resources for ILTA to dialogue with other non-governmental organizations and with governments and tourist advice to talk about the positive economic and cultural impact of LGBTQ + tourism. The Iglta Foundation is also an official partner of Ecpat International (former Prostitution and Trafficking). The Iglta Foundation finances research to promote the understanding of LGBTQ + trips within the global tourism industry. [16] [17] The Iglta Foundation finances IGLTA to collect and disseminate industrial research. This research provides demographic information on LGBTQ + travelers and economic data on the LGBTQ + tourism market. The Iglta Foundation also finances original searches on issues affecting the LGBTQ + travel industry. The Igltaf also finances Iglta members for small LGBTQ + tourist companies in emerging destinations that have no government or industrial support. From 2012, the members of the association were funded for small businesses in Cambodia, China, Colombia, Ecuador, Indonesia, Jamaica, Montenegro, Peru, Romania, Serbia, Singapore, Sri Lanka, Trinidad and Vietnam. The Iglta Foundation also supports scholarships for students and small entrepreneurs to participate in the Global IGLA Global Convention. [18] The Iglta sent an e-mail to its members announcing the addition of his most recent member activities. The e-mail included three trump properties, Trump Soho New York, Trump International Hotel * Tower Chicago and Trump International Hotel * Tower New York. It was not the first time that the Iglta included Trump properties. A change. Org Petition dated to 2011 encouraged the organization to "Dump Trump Properties". In July 7, 2017, the Iglta has released an official statement to the Windy City Times, the president of Kigita / CEO John Tanzanilla said, "Iglta is Travel based on members promoting LGBTQ LGBTQ Friendship Options. Iglta also aims to support and educate companies that want to better respond to the needs of LGBTQ customers. "Trump brand properties that are current Members of Iglta (2017) are independent hotels and not own property of Mr. Trump." Donald Trump was pronounced against LGBT rights and the marriage of the same sex. [21] At the quality of President of the United States, he was the first president after George W. Bush not to recognize June as "pride month". [22] Few people expressed concern about the theme, despite the differences between the president of the United States and the non-affiliated, private, LGBTQ-friendly travel accommodations. [According to whom?] In June 20, the Chicago hotel of Trump was briefly illuminated in rainbow colors, presumably in recognition of Pride celebrations next weekend. NBC 5 tweeted a photo of the display. [24] See also LGBTQ ^ IGLTA tourism references introduces a new visual identity with branded brand and logo. Drum. Recovery 2019-10-07.
