Personal Narrative- Contributing to Society

I am one of those people that you'd probably term "normal". I attend a normal school, I work at a normal job, I have a normal life. You wouldn't single me out on the street: there is nothing remarkable about me, I am one of the many. So, what has someone like me got to say that would make any difference to this world? I haven't fought the important socio-political battles of this century; I haven't done anything that will be recorded in the world annals. Yet, I believe that I can contribute towards a healthier society.

We live in a world that has forsaken the value of small things and deems those who think like me, foolish dreamers who will be left behind in the rat race. Well, so be it.

I know I have to keep working and living in thi...
