The map legend often also has a scale to help the map reader gauge distances. Map legends historically have been fixed elements on a printed map, but interactive digital maps often include dynamic map legends. What's on a Map Legend? Contact a reference librarian for usename and password. Finding Clothing Stores What do you do if you need clothes but aren't familiar with shopping in the area? To search general resources, enter what you're looking for and click "Search". A map legend shows colors, shapes, and symbols to define a certain characteristic of the map. Looking for the next book in a series or for discussion questions for your book group? No more using a Coldwater Creek store locator or Advance Auto Parts store locator. Check your map area, and then consult the map key for a clearer definition of the part of the map you're seeing. The map legend's purpose is also to show relationships between certain things. Just search for "clothing near me," in Google maps. You'll be shown a variety of clothing stores, starting with those that are closest to your actual location. This value in highlighting spatial relationships is a key asset to a printed map legend. Types of Maps Legends There are many different types of maps, so the map legend varies according to the purpose of the map. Instead of downloading a Lowe's store locator, simply search for "hardware store near me," and you'll see a list of options. Do you have something specific that's broken and needs repair? That will get you a broad range of options. Finding Repair Shops and Hardware Stores Nearby Sometimes you need a small tool, DIY supplies, or a way to fix something. You'll be shown all of the locations near you, sorted by which ones are closest. Contact a reference librarian for log in assistance or if you are looking for an earlier article.
