(3) Alternative means of conduction and registration. The notice must indicate whether the deposition must be taken by phone or other remote electronic means and identify the means. If the deposition must be recorded by means of non -abstention vehicles, the notice can include the notice required by the rule 199.1 (c). (4) Additional participants. The notice can include the notice relating to the additional participants requested by the rule 199.5 (a) (3). (5) Request for production of documents. A notice can include a request that the witness produces in the deposition documents or tangible things in the context of discovery and within the possession, custody or control of the witness. If the witness is a non -party, the request must comply with the 205 rule and the designation of the materials necessary to be identified in the mandate must be attached, or included in the communication. The response of the non -request is regulated by the rules 176 and 205. When the baton is a part or subject to the control of a party, the requests for documents referred to in this division are regulated by the rules 193 and 196. 199.3 Testimony to attend. A party can oblige the baton to participate in the oral deposition by serving the baton with a mandate referred to in article 176. If the baton is a party or is maintained by, employed by, or otherwise subject to the control of a part, however, The service of oral deposition communication on the party prosecutor has the same effect as a mandate served on the witness. 199.4 Objections at the time and place of oral deposition. A party or a witness can object to the time and place designated for an oral deposition with movement by protective order, or by motion to dispose of the communication of deposition. If the motion is presented 5.991 5.991 .atanimreted eresse ^Aup enoizom al odnauq a onif elaro enoizisoped al enamir enoizisoped anu id ogoul la e otnemom la enoizeibo^nu ,enoizisoped id osivva led oizivres li opod ovitaroval onroig ozret Objection and conducted during oral deposits. (a) participation. (1) Testimony. The witness must remain present day by day until the start of the deposition and completed. (2) Participation for Festa. A part can participate in an oral deposition of person, even if the deposition is taken by phone or other remote electronic means. If a deposition is taken by phone or other remote electronic means, the part that notes the deposition must make agreements for all people to participate with the same means. If the part that notes the deposition appears in person, any other part can appear by phone or other remote electronic means if that part makes the necessary provisions with the deposition officer and the part noting the deposition. (3) Other participants. If a part intends to have people other than the witness, from the parties, the spouses of parties, the advice, the employees of the council and the officer who takes the oral deposition, this part must give reasonable notice to all parties, both in Call of deposition that separately, of the identity of other people. b) oath; exam. Each person whose deposition is taken for oral exam must be first put under oath. The parties can examine and analyze the witness. Any part, instead of participating in the exam, can serve written questions in an envelope sealed on the party by noting the oral deposition, which must deliver them to the deposition officer, who must open the envelope and propose them to the witness. (c) time limits. No part can examine or analyze an individual witness for more than six hours. The interruptions during the depositions do not count against this limitation. d) conducted during the oral deposition; conferences. The oral deposition must be conducted in the same way as if the testimony was obtained in court the process. The councilor should collaborate and be courteous with each other and the witness. (g) Suspends deposition. If the time limits for the deposition are expired or the deposition is conducted or defended in violation of these rules, a party or witness may suspend the oral deposition for the time necessary to obtain a judgment. (h) Good faith required. A lawyer must not ask a question to an oral deposition only to harass or deceive the witness, for any other improper purpose, or without a good legal faith at the moment. A lawyer must not object to a question to an oral proposition, instruct the witness not to answer a question, or suspend the deposition unless there is a good feative and legal basis to do so at the moment. 199.6 Listen to objections. Any party may, at any reasonable time, request a hearing on an objection or privilege asserted by an instraction which does not respond or suspensive to the deposition; provide that the non-compliance of a party to obtain a judgment before the trial does not prevent any obligation or privilege. The party seeking to avoid the discovery must present any evidence necessary to support the objection or privilege both as a witness to the hearing or as a affidavit served on opposing parties at least seven days before the hearing. If the court determines that a review in the room of one or all the necessary discovery is necessary to govern, the answers to deposition questions can be made in camera, to be transcribed and sealed in case the privilege is sustained, or made in a affidavit produced at the court in a sealed wrapper.
